SOCIAL MEDIA POLICY

Brush Farm Dog Training Club has a website, public Facebook page and a Club Newsletter (The Barker).

The website provides a public presence. Our public Facebook page provides an interactive means of advertising our club and its events. No private information is to be given out.

WEBSITE:

- Our website will include current information on competitions, social events, committees, policies, constitution, rules and by-laws.
- Holds club archives
- Provides a means for the general public to contact the office bearers
- No Offensive content or photos will be published.
- We may use you/your dog's image, using only your given name and/or dog's name. No other personal information will be disclosed.

SOCIAL MEDIA WEBSITES – FACEBOOK:

- All social media posts will be treated as public (within the definition of each group) property.
- Postings will always be family friendly and feature club news, results, events and/or questions.
- We may use you/your dog's image, using only your given name and/or dog's name. No other personal information will be disclosed.
- No statements will be made that are misleading, false or likely to injure a person's reputation.
- No comment that could not be said face to face will be posted.
- No statements will be made that might bring our club into disrepute. Abusive, discriminatory, intimidating or offensive statements will not be tolerated. Offending posts will be removed and those responsible will be blocked from the site for a period of one month. Any further offence will result in being blocked from the group for a period as determined by the committee.
- Members who find a post offensive should contact the Facebook page administrators (via Personal Message PM) immediately.
- The Group Administrators have the right to delete any posts seen to be offensive.

THE BARKER:

- The Barker is produced quarterly.
- All members are encouraged to participate in the content of this publication. Please send any suggested articles, personal stories, recipes etc. (anything you think might be interesting to other members) to the Editor of The Barker by email Brushfarmbarker@gmail.com or in hard copy form at the Club house on Sundays.
- We may use you/your dog's image, using only your given name and/or dog's name. No other personal information will be disclosed.
